You may want to check for additional tips within the cluster and perhaps the factor for each competency.

Leadership Machine Competency Changes Across

January 1st, 2021 - At the cluster level, one would expect more agreement between the two sets of raters simply due to the fact there are fewer clusters (N 21) than competencies (N 67). Further, since a cluster represents a larger constellation of similar competencies, agreement at a broader level is more likely to occur. And indeed that is what we find.
