Heaven's Door, a collection of American whiskeys developed in collaboration with Bob Dylan and renowned craft distillers, will be available in May. The noun tissue comes from the Old French word tissu meaning a ribbon or belt of woven material. In fact, as a verb, tissue means weave fabric strands. Today we think of tissues as the disposable paper for blowing our noses or packing presents. A different kind of tissue is found in the body - the groups of cells that have the same job, like scar tissue, that protects a wound as it heals.
