These books feature real-life stories that young adults will relate to, lost and found by Anne Schraff. Although Jamee clearly has a lot of problems, she doesn't seem able to express them in words. Pretending you are Jamee, write a goodbye note that she could have left behind when she ran away. Try to explain why you are leaving and what you hope to accomplish by doing so.

Author Anne Schraff is a full-time writer. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and earned a B.A. and M.A. from California State University Northridge. Schraff taught high school from 1967 to 1977 at the Academy of Our Lady of Peace, San Diego, California.

This is the first book in the Bluford series. It centers on the life of Bluford sophomore Darcy Wills. Darcy contends with the return of her long-absent father, the troubling behavior of her younger sister Jamee, and the beginning of her first relationship.

Lost and Found was a good book, even though it was the first book I read. All the books in the series and they all have something to do with each other. The series has something of a girl named Darcy Wills. She is a sophomore at Bluford High School. She struggles to fit in because she is smart but not popular or even pretty like other girls at her school. Darcy is very slender and very shy. She doesn't have many friends except for this one girl by the name of Brisanna Meeks. Darcy has a younger sister named Jamee. They don't have much of a relationship. Jamee is very social and very popular. She has many friends, but Darcy doesn't.
